The best way to make money online is to build a list of email addresses and then mail to that list.

To build your list it takes on an average of 5-10 visits to your lead capture page for one sign up to your auto responder list.

Your auto responder letters need to be opened and read 5-7 times before they will consider your website's offer.

Since you'll need to build a list to earn money on the internet, we will show you how.

You will be using this free e-book to build your list.

We recommend you read all the sections. Then come back to the first section and get started.

Experts you know what to do, start giving this e-book away to increase your list size.

Please make sure you replace our lead capture form with your own.

Section 1. You will need an auto responder.

This tool will send your pre-written welcome and advertising letters automatically.

Click here <http://freeautobot.com> to sign up for free. (Make note of your username)

Section 2. You will have to type your own letters for your auto responder.

Start with your welcome email letter to your new subscriber.

Your subject line should read, " <%First_Name%> Here is the Free E-book you requested"

In the welcome email letter tell them a little bit about your website.

Include the free e-book and your sites links inside the email letter.

Free e-book click link below, then copy this link from your address bar and paste into your email.

Section 3. You will need a lead capture page.

This will collect names and email addresses to build your list of subscribers.
We have already built a lead capture page for your use already set up.

Option 1 - We can build your lead capture page and host it for a $5.47 monthly fee. (See note below)

Option 2 - You can set up and copy your own lead capture page from us.

To copy and paste this lead capture page follow the steps below.

a) Click or copy and paste link below in your address bar, and hit enter on your keyboard.

<http://thetrafficmagic.com/MyAdZooEbook/CapturePage.html>

b) Once you have the lead capture page open, then right click on any plain text.

A window will appear.

c) Select and click "view source" another window will appear with the html code inside.

d) Goto file from that window and click "save as".

e) Select the SAVE IN click the down arrow and select "desktop"

f) Select FILE NAME then type the file name "capturepage.htm".

g) Select SAVE AS TYPE click the down arrow and select "all files".

h) Final click "save".

i) Close all windows.

j) Goto your desktop and double click the icon named "capturepage" to make sure the page is working properly. (you need to be online)

Section 4. To personalize your lead capture page follow the steps below.

a) Open your lead capture page from your desktop.

b) Right click on open page on any plain text and click view source (see note section 3C) to find in quotes near the bottom of the source page.

<input type=hidden name="Username" value="myadzoo">
```

c) Replace the "myadzoo" with your freeautobot user name.

d) Next look for <input type=hidden name="Success_URL" value="http://thetrafficmagic.com">

Replace <http://thetrafficmagic.com> to where ever you want them to go after they fill out the form. Example <http://your domain name/capturepage.htm>

e) Now Find src=http://www.free-web-

&style=stencil&nbdigits=1

Replace the website address in red to your own address <http://your domain name/capturepage.htm>

This will make the counter work on your website this will count your visits

f) Goto file "save".

Section 5. Now get ready to upload the lead capture page to your hosting provider.

1. Upload (capturepage.htm) to your domains Root directory.
 2. Your website address will look like this example: <http://your domain name/capturepage.htm>
- If you are having problems with this call or email your hosting provider for instructions.

NOTE: If you choose option 1 and are having us host and set-up your lead capture page. We will need your username from your freeautobot account. You need to have your welcome and follow up letters done in your auto responder before we can start building you web page.

There will be a non-refundable monthly charge of $5.47, until you choose to host and set it up yourself. You can unsubscribe at anytime in your paypal's back office.

By using our service you can get started on building your list right away with out any hang ups. Your new website address will be emailed to your paypal email account when completed.

After we receive your payment please allow 1-3 working days to build your website.

E-check users, checks must clear before we start building your website.
